

Now Hiring

Graphic Design Intern

Description:

The Greenbrier Chamber of Commerce seeks to fill the Graphic Design intern position.

The Graphic Design Intern works under the direction of the Executive Director to promote our Annual Chamber Awards Banquet (February) and other events or programs through the design of marketing materials. Marketing materials for print or display may include advertisements, signage, posters, brochures, programs, etc.) Design attractive pieces for online marketing materials such as web banners, email and newsletter templates. Assist in creating a power point presentation for Annual Banquet. Participate in corporate identity planning.

Qualifications:

Education/Experience Requirements

Applicant should be enrolled in a bachelor's degree program and have a minimum of one year of previous work or volunteer experience. Applicant should be a creative and detailed orientated individual with excellent design sense, informed about current graphic design trends , posses an understanding of typography and design hierarchy and be highly proficient in Photoshop and Illustrator.

Applicant should have experience with Microsoft Office applications. Applicant must have access to computer with Microsoft Office and industry standard design software. Owning a car and an understanding of Greenbrier Businesses a plus.

Compensation:

Gain dynamic, professional quality portfolio pieces that will be seen by hundreds of local business owners.

Fulfills internship requirements for some students in related field: usually 3 credit hours. Optional sales-based incentives available. Benefits include flexible work hours, recognition at awards banquet, a cooler than average boss, lots of praise and great recommendations for a job well done. Your resume will thank you for this.